

COUNTRY DAY

CONNECTED

Dear US Families,

My video broadcast this week talks a bit about where we are 5 weeks in and then discusses interim grades and comments, plans for Awards Day and the end of the school year, medication pick up and locker cleanouts, and this weekend's Honk Out for seniors and their families. My fatigue is evident, and I'm sorry...I watch this back and only hear my who/whom error and my misuse of the word "fortunate" where I clearly mean "grateful." It's been a long week--forgive me. Stay well. We Are Country Day!
